Appellee	:	October 31, 1996

The Board's decision in this case was issued on September 23, 1996. 30 IBIA 13. On October 23, 1996, the Board received a petition for reconsideration from the Swinomish Tribal Community (Tribe).

The Tribe clearly disagrees with the Board's decision. However, disagreement with a decision issued by the Board does not constitute the extraordinary circumstances contemplated in 43 C.F.R. 4.315(a). As stated in that provision: "Reconsideration of a decision by the Board will be granted only in extraordinary circumstances." The arguments made in the Tribe's petition for reconsideration are, in essence, the same as those it made in the earlier proceedings. The Board has already considered and rejected those arguments.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to the Board of Indian Appeals by the Secretary of the Interior, 43 C.F.R. 4.1, the Tribe's petition for reconsideration is denied.
